

CHARTER 100 DC

May 2023 NEWSLETTER

Happy May and Mother's Day Ladies!

Washington is at its finest with azaleas, dogwoods, cherry blossoms, brilliant Japanese maples, tulips and bounteous bulbs! Revel in this fleeting Spring moment when everything on the palette is abloom.

Last month's program speaker, industry expert Alison Pascale, helped ground us for a world of driverless cars and fleet vehicles that will potentially provide a future of critical community services especially for seniors and the disabled. Beta testing is underway in Germany, and it is truly impressive. Her presentation which included two videos will be available soon on our website.

May 9th is the RSVP deadline for former ambassador to Ukraine Marie Yovanovitch's presentation and book signing of her Lessons from the Edge: A Memoir. The publisher is discounting her fascinating book for Charter 100 DC. Order it when you RSVP for the Hillwood Museum luncheon; it will be awaiting you at your arrival.

Our annual meeting will take place via Zoom Thursday, May 18th, at 7:00 PM. Attendance is mandatory and necessary to vote for this year's prospective new members and 2023-2024 Executive Committee officers.

Payable now are your 2023-2024 Charter 100 DC membership dues that you can remit when you RSVP for your annual meeting attendance.

Enjoy your Mother's Day --

Paula Hantman Tolle
